Tuesday

English – Poetry

Read the poem below by Brian Morse. Explore the vocabulary used?

Cat In The Window

What do you see?

Cloud, wind, birds, a bird in a tree.

The daffodils shivering in the February breeze,

A puddle in the road beginning to freeze.

Snow on the wind Dusk in a cloud.

Leaves in a frenzy,

The bird's head cowed.

Winter – though the sun shines.

Blizzard, and the north wind's whine.

Which sense is being used in the poem by Brian Morse? What are the five senses?

Imagine there's a cat sitting in a window looking out. Or it might be outside on a wall or high in a tree. What can it see?

Create a list of ideas for what can the cat see? Remember to use adjectives...

What do you see?

Using your ideas about 'What do you see?' write your own poem for Cat In The Window using the template below.

Remember to include the title :

'Cat In The Window'

What do you see?

Wednesday

On Monday, a poem was written using the sight sense (What do you see?).

Today, we will use our other senses to write a poem for Cat In The Window.

First, let's collect some ideas about what the cat can hear, feel, taste and smell.

What do you hear?

What do you feel?

What do you taste?

Using one of the senses write another poem. This time you need to use similes in your poem!

CAT IN THE WINDOW
WHAT DO YOU?

Thursday

Read the poem below called 'Missing:Daisy'. Sentence starter 'Anyone seen my DRAGON?' is the chorus section and therefore the first paragraph needs to be read again. To make it more interesting you might want to read the chorus of 'Missing:DAISY' in a different voice or by increasing the volume.

Missing: DAISY

*Anyone seen my DRAGON?
Scary, Scaly
Tall 'n Taily
Daisy the Dreadful Dragon.*

*She's got bad breath.
A temper true.
Eats old ladies. (Children too.)*

*She breathes out fire.
She puffs out smoke.
She'll singe your hair. She'll make you choke.*

Anyone seen my DRAGON?...

*She soars about.
She seeks out food.
Makes loud noises. (Mainly rude.)*

*Yes, she's grumpy.
Yes, she's smelly.
Big Butt always blocks the telly.*

Anyone seen my DRAGON?...

*And she's beastly.
And a pest.
But I love her. (She's the best.)*

*Please send Daisy
Back to me.
Treat her well. Or you'll be tea...*

Anyone seen my DRAGON?...

Questions to think about:

Do all poems rhyme?

Does this poem have any rhyming words?

Can you list the rhyming words in this poem?

Today, you are going to write a poem about a pet. It could be about any pet you like. The poem does not have to rhyme however you need to use lots of adjectives and adventurous vocabulary to describe your pet.

The title of the poem should be 'Anyone seen my...?' See the example on next page.

Anyone seen my big, black cat?

Anyone seen my big, black cat?
Fat and fluffy
Cute and cuddly
Kali my beautiful cat.

She walks on a the fence
She climbs the tree
She teases the dog
She stalks the birds

Anyone seen my big, black cat?
Fat and fluffy
Cute and cuddly
Kali my beautiful cat.

She likes to cuddle
But hates the puddles
She loves to sleep all day
And chase mice as play

Anyone seen my big, black cat?
Fat and fluffy
Cute and cuddly
Kali my beautiful cat.

Now your turn to write a poem about any pet/animal of your choice! Try to include rhyming words.

Friday

Today's focus will be to write a list poem. A list poem does exactly as described and collects content in a list form. It can be purely a list without transitional phrases. List poems don't have any fixed rhyme. They can also be funny!

Here is an example of a 'List Poem':

Ten Things Found in a Wizard's Pocket

A dark night.

Some words that nobody could ever spell.

A glass of water full to the top.

A large elephant.

A vest made from spider's webs.

A handkerchief the size of a car park.

A bill from the wand shop.

A bucket full of stars and planets, to mix with the dark night.

A bag of magic mints you can suck for ever.

A snoring rabbit.

The list poem that you will write is about 'Friendship Recipe'. You need to think about What ingredients/qualities you need to make a good friend?

Look at the examples and see if there are any qualities that you think that are important and would like to use in your poem such as kindness, caring, trust.

I Can Be a Pal

By Kristen Smith

I can be a pal by smiling at you.

I can be a pal when you feel blue.

I can be a pal who is honest and kind.

I can be a pal when you're in a bind.

I can be a pal by saying please and thank you.

I can be a pal when no one wants to.

I can be a pal every single day.

I can be your pal, what do you say?

Friends at school

Friends at school can play and share.

Friends at school are kind and fair.

Friends at school will talk to you

When you're feeling sad and blue.

Friends at school are big and small.

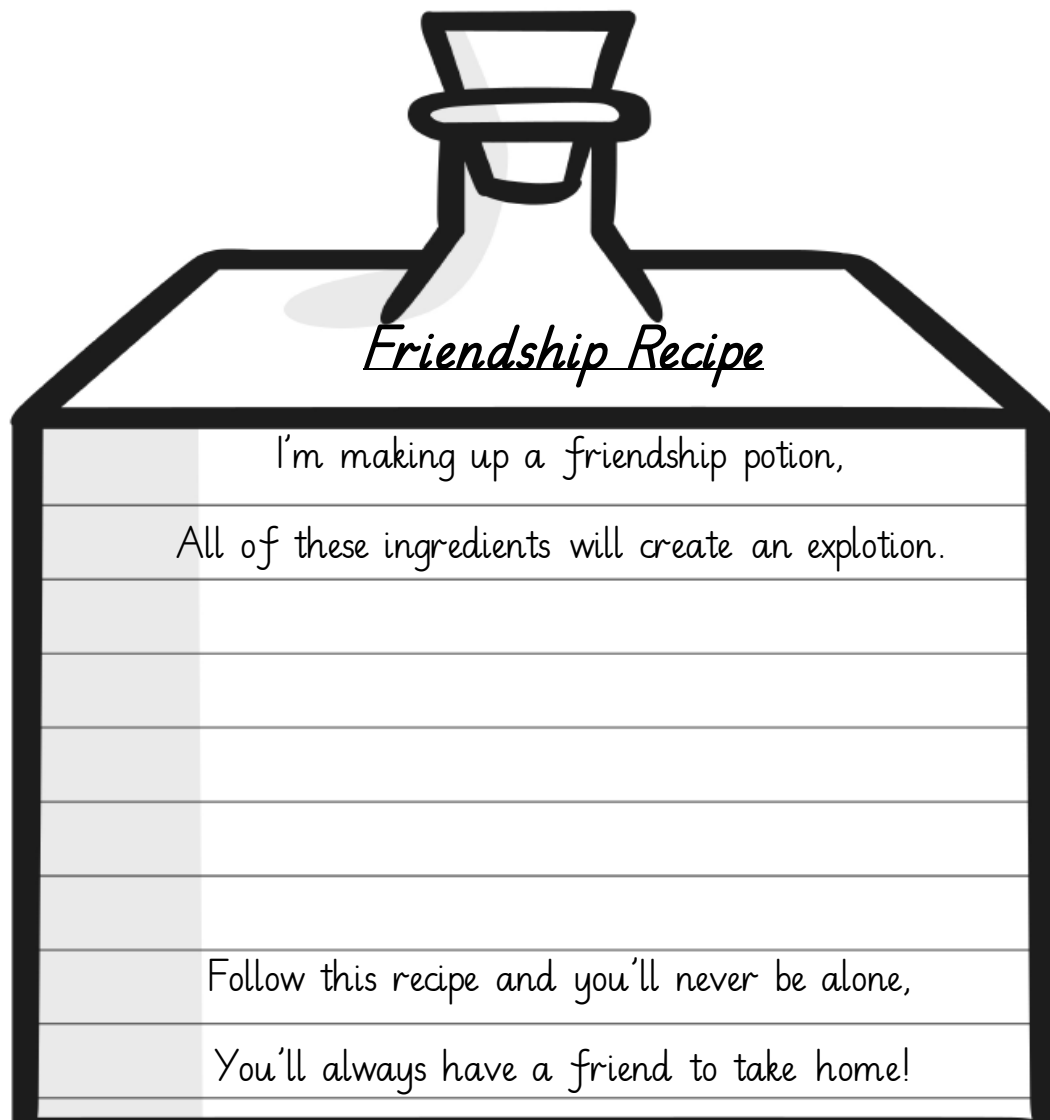

Friends at school are best of all.

Think about how you will use your keywords in a sentence. An example of a poem has been done for you.

Friendship Recipe

I'm making up a friendship potion,
All of these ingredients will create an explosion.
A dash of laughter and joy.
Plenty of caring and sharing.
Sprinkle some smiles.
Add a handful of kindness.
And a spoonful of trust.
Follow this recipe and you'll never be alone,
You'll always have a friend to take home!

Now it's your turn to write a list poem.
