

1. Once the laptop is powered on, press the ENTER key

2. On the next screen, type in the username and password provided. Please note, the username has a full stop and backslash at the beginning:

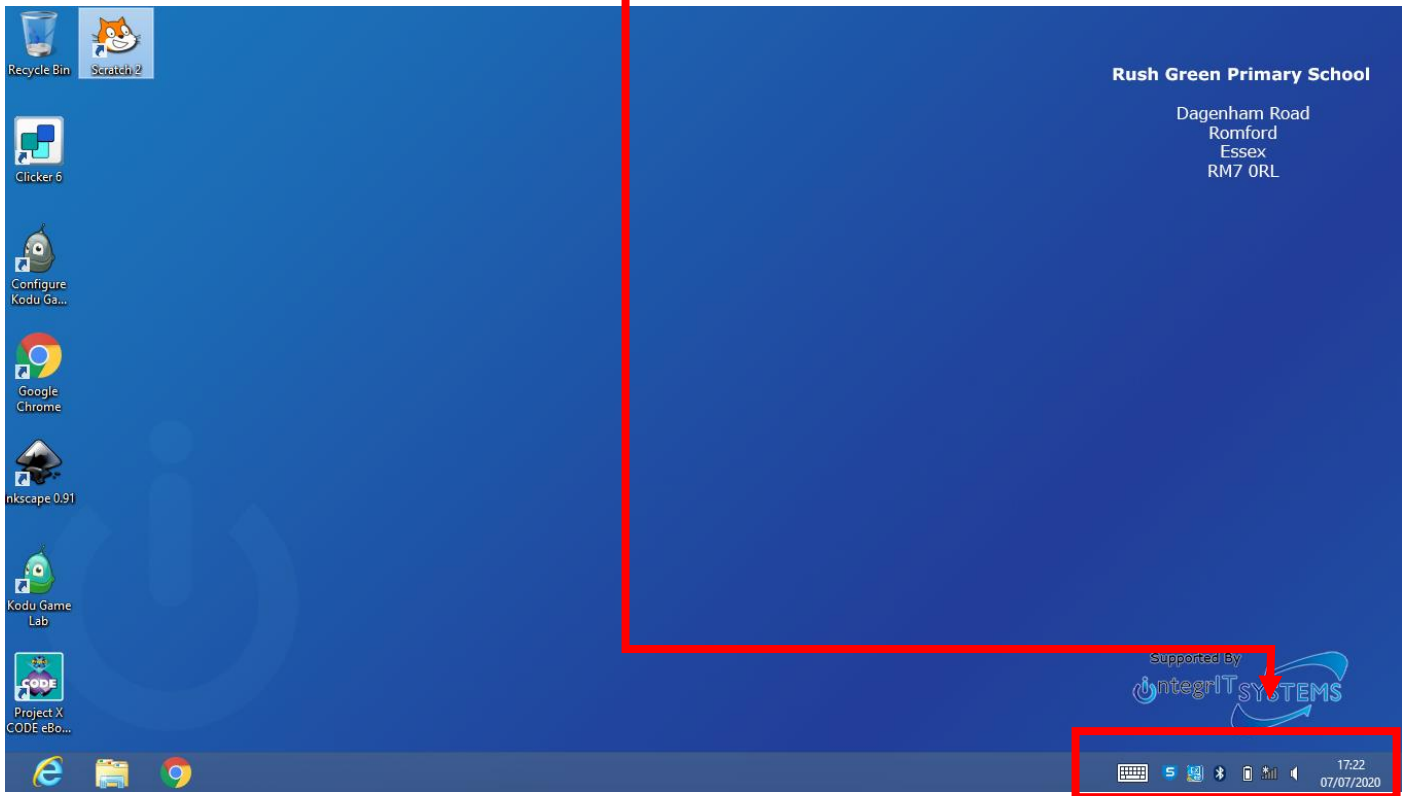

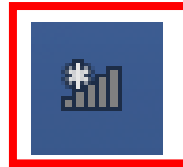

Username	.\student
Password	Rushgreen1

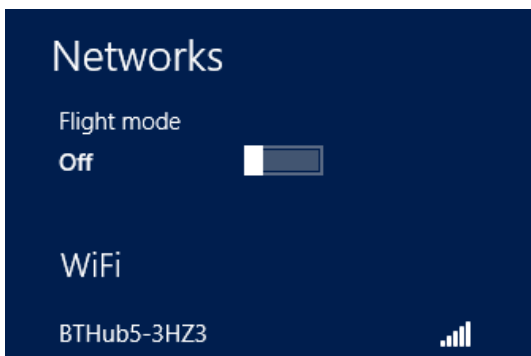

3. On this screen, you can search for apps by typing in their name e.g. word. For now, just click on Desktop:

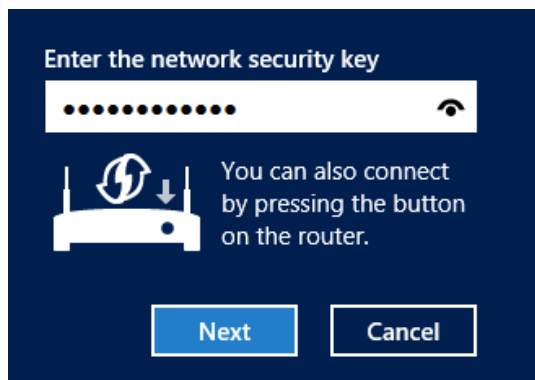

4. On the desktop, click on this icon which is located here:

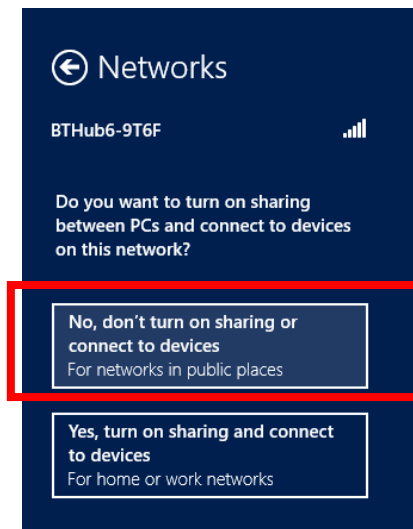

5. Select your network from the list and click on connect, you can tick connect automatically:

6. Enter your password and click on Next:

7. Select No:

8. Open the Google Chrome browser to access the Internet.

